

As with any market in the USA, competition is a good thing. This keeps the people who offer goods and services honest. By stopping the broadcast of certain stations via satellite radio, you are doing a disservice to the nation. Please keep allowing the customers of satellite radio the full use of their service. Ingenuity is what sparked this nation and made it great. Please do not inhibit the future of all, by satisfying the greed of the few.